An Act of Spiritual Communion

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.

I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul.

Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You.

Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.

— based on a prayer of St Alphonsus Liguori

May Altar May is dedicated to Our Lady. Pope Francis has asked people to pray the Rosary for an end to the pandemic. Why not erect a May Altar in your home.

PRAYING FOR AN END TO COVID PANDEMIC: Pope Francis invites Catholics and Marian Shrines around the world to dedicate the month of May to a marathon of prayer (and especially the Rosary) for an end to the Pandemic. It takes place under the theme "The whole Church was fervently praying to God," which recalls a verse in the Book of Acts of the Apostles (12:5). The initiative will involve all the Shrines of the world in a special way, so that they might encourage the faithful, families, and communities to recite the Rosary to pray for an end to the pandemic. Pope Francis will open the Marian month of prayer on 1 May with a 5pm (Irish Time) Rosary broadcast across Vatican Media's platforms (for example search YouTube for VATICAN MEDIA LIVE ENGLISH). The Pope will also close the initiative on 31 May with another specially-broadcast Rosary. This year's dedication of May to pandemic-related prayer recalls a similar occurrence during the first wave in March 2020. Pope Francis led the world in prayer during that confusing and difficult time, celebrating a live-streamed, daily Mass in the Casa Santa Marta. After more than a year, and with the world still in the grips of the pandemic, the Pope and the Church around the world are once again leading the way in imploring God for an end to the suffering which so many people are forced to bear. Please do consider joining the Vatican online daily Rosary at 5pm. Otherwise pray the Rosary (preferably with one's family) daily and offer it up in a special way for an end to the pandemic.

Women of Faith Conference will be LIVE on Radio Maria Ireland on Saturday May 8th from 2pm. Bishop Phonsie Cullinan will open and bless the Conference. SPEAKERS: Maria Steen, Sr. Briege McKenna, Frances Hogan, Sr. Emanuela of the Sisters of the Divine Revelation.

EASTER BREAKTHROUGH is a reflection of Pope Benedict XVI - visit www.tiny.cc/PB16EB. He writes: "What would it mean if Easter, the Resurrection of Jesus, had not taken place?... Well, if there was no Resurrection, the story of Jesus would have ended with Good Friday... he would have become a has-been. But that would mean that God does not take the initiatives in history, that he is either unable or unwilling to touch this world of ours, our human living and dying. And that in turn would mean that love is futile... an empty and vain promise. It would mean that there is no judgement and no justice. It would mean that the [present] moment is all that counts and that right belongs to the cunning, the crafty and those without consciences... What Easter does mean [is that] God has acted. History does not go on aimlessly. Justice, love, truth - these are realities, genuine reality. God loves us; he comes to meet us. The more we go along his path and live in his way... the more our hearts will be filled with Easter joy... it is the breakthrough that has determined the meaning of all history."

THE ATHEIST'S BLUFF: In many ways, atheism is based on the big bluff that you can have your cake and eat it. In the latest paper from The Iona Institute, Dr Gerard Casey, former head of the Department of Philosophy at UCD, calls this bluff. Visit www.tinyurl.com/IONA2021. The bluff is that you can deny the existence of God, and all the consequences are positive. But this is far from the case. In fact, denying the existence of God means we also have to ditch belief in things most of us take for granted and never question, for example, free will, objective right and wrong, the idea that the universe (and life) has a meaning and purpose. Ultimately with atheism we must accept that death is the total end of our existence which is opposed to our deepest human instincts.
